Jabalpur in the Category of Backward Districts

† 3730. SHRI P.K MAHESHWARI : Will the Minister of HEAVY INDUSTRIES AND PUBLIC ENTERPRISES be pleased to state:

(a) the reasons for keeping Jabalpur district in the category of developed districts from industrial point of view;

(b) the reasons for not declaring Jabalpur as backward district from industrial point of view despite it being a earthquake affected district;

(c) whether there are schemes for attracting industrialist here or any exemption has been given or Government are contemplating to give any exemption; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEAVY INDUSTRIES AND PUBLIC ENTERPRISES (DR. VALLABH BHAI RAMJIBHAI KATHIRIA): (a) and (b) Districts have been categorized as Category A and Category B districts on the basis of their composite index for measuring industrial backwardness. Against the weighted index of national average of 1500, those districts having composite index upto 250 have been put into category A and those having composite'index from 251 to 500 in category B. As the weighted index count for Jabalpur is 1336, Jabalpur has not been classified as Category A or B for the purpose of Sec. 80 1B of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

(c) and (d) With the delicensing of non-strategic sectors, promoters are free to take locational decision. State Governments offer various incentives to attract investment.
